

Anne of Green Gables

Technical Roles

Lead Videographer: (Already Filled) This position will assist and execute the director's artistic vision for the filming of the current production. They will provide leadership to the camera crew, and communicate with the director about all videography choices. In addition, they may be asked to assist in editing and in operation of the video switcher.

Camera Crew (Up to 4 positions available): These individuals will be responsible for the operation of tripod and/or handheld cameras and set up artistic shots of the production in accordance with communication given by the Director and the Lead Videographer.

Assistant Stage Manager: This position will manage set changes, and the backstage environment during the filming of the production. They will be a "team captain" for our stage crew.

Stage Crew (Up to 4 positions available): These individuals will be expected to execute scene changes quietly and efficiently during the production and set up the venue for performance. Can be helpful to have the ability to lift large and/or awkward props and scenery that may weigh up to or above 25lbs.